

To: Fellow misanthropes, drinkers, singers, philanderers and other 3rd year students

1. It is with some delight that I note Friday will mark about 96% of our formal legal will be complete.
2. It is with some regret that I note the passing of the "Friday afternoon party"
3. It is with some delight that I note Friday is the last day before vacation.
4. I humbly suggest we gather about 3 pm in some appropriate location to drink cheap beer, eat garbage food, and sing off-key. MC 17, having two refrigerators and garbage already on the floor, seems appropriate. If no one shows up, a lesser number will party at Kuhio Grill.
5. This is not intended to interfere with other parties, picnics, etc., but just to get down and dirty for a brief while.
6. Lindsey will be invited as guest degenerate.
7. Bring whatever gets you off. No pet ostriches, please.
